

About Renée

Renée has been called a healer's healer by the many doctors and therapists who send their hard core cases her way. Through a profound, silent healing technique, she penetrates deeply into cellular levels to release unwanted memories - including prenatal and past life experiences - that stand in the way of her clients' highest ideals: being, doing and having in life all that makes their hearts sing.

Renée has a clairvoyant, direct link with spirit. Surrendering to God, she is assisted by the ascended master Emmanuel, as well as the spirit guides and angels of her clients, to raise their frequencies and release real and imagined blocks from their physical bodies and energy fields. Widely known as a healer, Renée actually thinks of herself as a "catalyst for the higher vibration of well-being and spiritual growth."

Renée became aware of her extraordinary gift when, at age four, she began seeing angels. Though she amazed her father by lifting away pain from his body with her touch, in her childhood innocence she assumed that everyone had this capability. It wasn't until her teen years that she recognized her gift was unique.

In the mid-seventies, through a mentor, Renée realized she didn't have to be physically present with a client for healing to take place. Since that time she has worked with thousands of clients by phone, producing an astonishing clearing of their personal issues. In fact, it has been proven that the uplifting energy or frequency that flows through Renée when she is conducting a session not only can be broadcast over radio, telephone and television wavelengths, but registers also onto audio tape, thereby allowing the actuality of mass healing through the media with live or recorded broadcasts.

For over 30 years Renée has relieved countless people of their addictions, compulsions, phobias, negative emotions and thought patterns as well as helped clients to remove implants and stave off psychic attacks. Moreover, when called upon to free homes and buildings from discordant energies, she is able to provide harmonious living environments and clear avenues for quick real estate sales.

Renée's vision is to introduce her clients to the miracle of who they really are - to see them living their lives in the spirit of pure, positive energy, with unconditional love and abundance, in perfect harmony with All God's Creation thus always accessing their full potential. Her commitment is to this ideal.

The Issues

- physical challenges
- emotional and spiritual crises
- relationship obstacles
- distrust of oneself, others and outcomes
- addictions
- financial and career uncertainties
- environmental interferences

Think of yourself as a very powerful 1,000 watt light bulb. But you've been sitting on top of a lamp post in New York City your whole life collecting dust, dirt and a lot of bugs. When you are switched on, how much light do you think is going to shine through the debris? Suppose the light is your potential as a being...do you think it would behoove you to have all this grime cleared away?

Ideally, we should all be able to shine our brightest. This is where Renée can help.

Scientists believe that most people use only 10 percent of their known human potential, so 90 percent of our ascertained talent capacity would appear to go to waste. It seems that now, when cleared of the disempowering patterns that limit us, we are able to access that dormant potentiality heretofore considered unavailable to us.

The Potential

- physical energy and vitality
- mental clarity and focus
- emotional balance; enhancing love, trust, intimacy and understanding
- forgiveness of self and others
- creating harmonious environmental energies
- expanded consciousness

In Renée's sessions, she lifts us into high frequencies, enabling us to release the unconscious limiting and disempowering thought forms we have built up over time, but more importantly she can aid us in deactivating the magnet that attracts and holds them. This can free up our awareness to a degree that allows for the conscious manifesting of our goals and dreams - in essence, the ability to deliberately create our lives as we wish.
